Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

EDITION 1 • OCTOBER 2021

THE PROJECT

The CRxSiSS project aims to respond to one of the fundamental needs of today's society, lifelong learning for adults and the elderly, by promoting, through the mobility of teachers and students, the exchange of knowledge and experiences at a transnational level.

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This communication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

OBJECTIVES

Promote the exchange of experiences, good practices and educational content on the topics around which the project.

To create through these actions a space for exchange and dialogue at a transnational level, with the participation of different entities and countries.

To contribute, from the field of education, to the knowledge and approach of key concepts for the development of a common European identity.

TO promote, from an intergenerational perspective, the development and exercise of an active, critical and participatory citizenship, capable of facing the great challenge facing European society today.

MEETING

The meeting took place in Malaga, Spain, on 27th and 28th of September 2021.

The meeting aimed to discuss and define the topics to be addressed in each mobility, the dissemination process and review of financial issues.

In addition, this was the first face-to-face meeting of the project and was an opportunity for the partners to get to know each other better and strengthen relationships.

The next mobility will take place between 25 and 29 October in Udine, Italy. The main themes of this mobility will be "Using and Teaching ICT against the digital divide and for improved cyber security" and "Public health: healthy habits for daily life and in pandemic situations".
